LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

H. E. Freudenthal went out to Deerlodge on Monday.

Henry Kahn, dropped in on us yesterday on one of his periodical visits.

J. Eisenman came up from Helene last night to get away from the heat and will return on Monday.

F. H. McNamee came in from Deerlodge on Thursday and left for DeLamar on Saturday.

Dr. Campbell was called to Eagle Valley this afternoon to attend the infant child of Les. Lytle.

The weather has been hotter for the past few days than many thought it would be after our late rains.

Miss Schley, the self constituted peace commissioner, has been ordered out of Spain. Columbia should fan the young lady with her material slipper.

It has been remarked that a widow can make herself so fascinating because she knows all about men and the only man that knows anything about her is dead.

The Nevada Press Association has about completed its arrangements for an excursion to Omaha. It will leave Reno about the 20th. inst. and will spend one day in Salt Lake and two days in Denver.

Not only here, but at Panaca, the valleys, and in the southern part of the county, summer complaint is affecting a good many people. The weather generally is supposed to be the cause. No serious cases have been reported.

Mrs. Robert Fitzsimmons publishes a card in the New York Journal over her signature that she is tired of having it said that Bob is crouching behind her to avoid a fight.
She takes off all strings and says that Bob is ready to fight any man living, for any amount.

It is reported that Judge Cheney will not be a candidate for reelection as Judge of the Second Judicial District, but proposes to retire and practice law. The Gazette says there promises to be a scramble for the place by others.

It will soon be time now for the county candidate to openly announce himself. Talk is growing more abundant every day but a lot of it is only talk after all and we may be treated to a genuine surprise or two before the tickets are made up.

The delegates from Pioche precinct to the Silver Party State Convention will be elected at a mass meeting of Silver Party men to be called at the courthouse by the local members of the county central committee. This is in accordance with the resolutions passed at the County committee at DeLamar.

The stage hereafter will leave Panaca at 6 o'clock in the morning instead of 7, and will pass here, when on time, going north at about 8.30. Take notice and get your morning letters in on time. It was found necessary to leave earlier in order to make sure of connecting with the train at Milford.

The last legislature passed a bill by which the people of Ormsby, Storey and Douglas Counties will vote this fall as to whether they will consolidate and form one county.
Storey county consists of Virginia City, Ormsby of Carson, while Douglas is small. The rapid depopulation of Virginia and general dullness should prompt the consolidation in the interests of economy.

The dry season has caused great loss to stockmen on the Sierra foothills. It is estimated that 175,000 sheep were driven into the forest reservations after the withdrawal of the United States cavalry some time ago. Recently a force of deputy marshals forced the stockmen to remove their cattle and sheep from the reserved land. Some of the herders assert that as there is no grass and little water to be found elsewhere, at least 10,000 sheep must perish of starvation and thirst.

RAILROAD CONSTRUCTION.

The Line South from Milford A. S. S. Co.

It is almost a certainty that the proposed extension South from Milford to the State line mining district will be built this year. As stated from time to time in The Tribune, negotiations have been in progress for the construction of this branch between the Oregon Short Line and David Eccles, R. C. Lund and C.
W. Nibley. Recently A. W. Mc-Cune of this city also took hold of the project and is now interested financially in it. Mr. McCune went to Boston a fortnight ago, where with Mr. Nibley he is understood to have met the officers of the Oregon Short Line and definitely settled the matter of the road. The contracts are said to have been signed.

The proposition, which has been heretofore explained is that the gentlemen named will build the road over the old Pioche grade already completed and only needing a few repairs. The Oregon Short Line furnishes 52-pound steel rails and all the necessary equipment, for which it takes bonds of the new line in payment.

The line is proposed to be built now eighty miles southwest of Milford, but it is in direct line for Los Angeles, and its construction means the starting of that great enterprise, as work will commence speedily.
It is by far the most important railroad move of the present year.

The only thing that will take time is the securing of ties, but Eccles and Nibley have large saw mills on their Sumpter Valley road in Oregon, and these will be taxed to their full capacity to supply the necessary timber.—Salt Lake Tribune.

Still Prospecting.

Messrs C. H. Hand and R. C.
Lund left on Friday for the southwest part of the county. They proposed to take in Delamar, Pahrangat Lake, Temple, Grooms and anything else of interest in a mining way before returning north. Before leaving here they completed the bonding of the Last Shange claim which adjoins the Yuba on the east, and have arranged to develop it to some extent from the level of the Pacific tunnel. The ore chute from which the Summit mill has been supplied for the past season is supposed to extend into the Last Shange ground. The purchasers have six months time in which to open the claim up. If it develops as hoped for it will be the means of introducing new capital into our town and will mean much for us as the ground along the Yuba dike in that section is wholly unopened.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

The last crop bulletin issued from the Department of Agriculture at Carson, says of Lincoln County: Temperature about 100 degrees during the day. Highest at Rio-ville, 122; at Overton, 110; at Pana-ca, 106. In the north portion oats and wheat being harvested, a good crop. Wild hay all up, second crop of alfalfa ready to be cut near Pana-ca; third crop in bloom at Hilo.
In the south portion the third crop of lucerne is in the stack. Corn, melons, grapes and second crop of figs ripe. Cane, cotton and garden truck doing well where water is sufficient. Cheese making satisfactory.

Terms have been agreed upon by Jos. Delmar and the projectors of the reservoir enterprise at Panaca to part with the reservoir site at Round Valley, and the work will be commenced shortly. Several preliminary matters require attention, but as soon as troops are in, the wagons and teams will be put to work at grading and hauling rock, etc. It is thought that at least 100 separate families can be supplied through this enterprise, and the benefits to result from its successful completion, to those directly interested and to the surrounding business country, grow, the more the matter is considered.

It will require four or five years before the fullest benefits can be obtained, as losses through leakages and seeping will occur, but it will enable land to be taken in from the very first season.

from Elko to Carson to try a divorce case which Judge C. E. Mack was disqualified to hear and his visit here will not occur till about the end of the month. Notice will be given but there promises to be nothing done but probate and citizenship business.

Death of Mrs. Osborne.

Shortly after 7 o'clock on Tuesday morning, Mrs. I. Osborne quietly breathed her last at the residence of her daughter on Cedar St.

Deceased was the mother of T. J.
Osborne and Mrs. John R. Cook here and had resided at Pioche for the past 27 years. She was a native of Scotland and was in her 73rd. year.

Two years and a half ago she suffered a stroke of apoplexy which dulled the mental faculties and from which she never wholly recovered.

She was in her usual health up to Thursday last when she took to bed complaining of feeling generally unwell and went off into a sleep from which she may be said never to have awakened. On Friday she was dimly conscious for a time then lapsed into a state of coma, beyond the aid of kindly ministering hands, until, on Tuesday morning, "When the sun in all his state, illumed the eastern skies, She passed through Glory's morning gate" and her hands "were folded in that sinless, stainless rest, that change which never changes."

The funeral took place yesterday morning at 10.30 o'clock, the remains being placed in the Masonic cemetery, with those of her husband who died 11 years ago.

She was always a self sacrificing and devoted mother and her trials she bore with Christian fortitude.
Her virtues were recognized and appreciated by all who knew her, yet by none so fully as the son and daughter who survive her.

The Demijohn.

The Demijohn mine at the Point is turning out a nice lot of silver-lead ore. The mine is under bond to the present lessees for $2000.00 and it will doubtless be taken up and the money realized from the mine itself to pay for it. There is an immense ledge there but former owners did not happen to strike on an ore chute.

The present ore is being concentrated at the Wheeler mill and one or two shipments of concentrates have already been made to Milford.

For Supreme Judge.

Among the candidates for Supreme Judge is Judge Wm. Webster of Reno, who announces his candidacy subject to the decision of the Silver Party State Convention.
Judge Webster is one of the old residents of Reno and one of the pioneer lawyers of the state. He has practiced in the state for a third of a century, is said to be eminently fitted for the place and will make an able judge. He is also an energetic and progressive man, liberal and charitable and one whose whole interests are in Nevada and with her people.

Mrs. Mamie Kelly and Miss Maggie Clinton returned to DeLamar on Saturday.

Henry Eiler returned from Salt Lake on Tuesday, looking well after a month's "out."

Doc. Meeks went through on this morning's Milford stage, bound for Salt Lake to order new goods.

S. E. Wertheimer was a north bound passenger on Sunday, bound for a trip east to purchase goods for the DeLamar firm.

In the Justice's court last Saturday T. J. Osborne brought suit against H. Welland on a $205.76 merchandise account for San Francisco parties and the case will come to issue tomorrow.

In the case of Delmar vs. Ross, tried last Wednesday at Deerlodge a judgment has been rendered of $2.50 for the plaintiff together with costs. The amount sued for was $121 and the plaintiff will appeal the case to the District Court.

Frank Wilson last week bought a brown stone front business block on Second South St. Salt Lake. It is the largest real estate transaction reported in Salt Lake this year.
The building fronts over 100 feet on the south side of the street and the price paid was $70,000.00.

Rev. W. T. Snead of All Saint's Mission will leave DeLamar on Monday for a few weeks. He will be ordained into the ministry of the Episcopal church in St. Mark's cathedral on Sunday the 21st, inst after which he will make a visit to his home in the state of Virginia and may return accompanied by a helpmate for the balance of life's journey. So, at least, says dame rumor.

C. J. Pettie, Eugene Goodrich and Mrs. H. J. Goodrich came in this morning from DeLamar, having made a night drive of it to avoid the heat. Gene has recovered from the worst effects of his recent spell of sickness and proposes to change his location with a view to avoid further attacks. His objective point at present is Tacoma, Washington.
He has disposed of the Lode newspaper to Mr. Pettie and that gentleman will hereafter conduct it.

REUNITED.

I've been thinking of it over, an' it 'pears to me today
The war's the biggest blessing that has ever come our way
'Course, there'll be some fightin', an' a few more graves 'll be Whar the daisies in the meadow look their purest an' truest

For that's to be expected; but—the thing that makes me feel That the war's a heavenly blessing 'is the wounds that it'll heal!
The old wounds that's been ranklin' sence the day that Dixie Lee Said we'd rest an' think it over by that old-time apple tree!

I see the boys that fix us in the union coats of blue
On the same ground—'hale an' hearty, an' a-shakin' howdy-doo!
An' I hear the harp play "Dixie," an' I see 'em march away.

'Till I can't tell whar the blue is, an' I'm miked up on the gray!
The old war tunes air ringin', an' "Dixie's" on the rise;
But "Yankee Doodle" follers 'fore it's half way to the skies!

An' the old "Star-Spangled Banner" is in ever' steppin' chime.
An' I to you, we're a-havin' of a halleluliah time!

I'm glad I've lived to see it; I'm glad the time is come When, north an' south, we answer to the roll-call of the free!
When thar ain't no line divides us, but north an' south we stan'

For just one common country—one freedom-lovin' lan' That's whar the war's a blessing, that's whar 'pears like I see A brighter mornin' breakin' on the hills for you an' me!

It's sholder now to sholder—thar ain't no line of gray—An' we're shoutin' "Halleluia," an' we're happy on the way!
—F. L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

OLD MEN IN SERVICE.

Aged Statesmen Do Not Realize Their Infirmitities.

Continue to Serve the Public Until Retired by the Government Head-Some Notable Instances.

It is a rather strange coincidence that at the very time when President Mc-Kinley was engaged in the exceedingly painful task of insisting upon the resignation of his secretary of state, ex-Senator Sherman, Emperor William should have been similarly occupied in forcing a still more famous veteran to retire into private life.

With ordinary civil, military and naval servants of the state, an age has wisely been fixed by law, on attaining which they are compelled to surrender their offices to younger men, who, while possibly possessed of less experience, atone for that defect by superior mental and physical energy and activity.

But, unfortunately, there is no age limit set for those statesmen and great commanders whose service to the nation and eminence seem to exempt them from ordinary rules and regulations. And the case of the German field marshal, Count Blumenthal, constitutes a striking illustration of this.

The old marshal, having reached the advanced age of 88, had become obviously unfitted for the proper performance of his important and exacting duties as inspector general of the third inspection of the entire German army.
All sorts of hints and suggestions of the most pointed character were offered to him, with a view of calling his attention courteously and considerately to the fact that it was considered desirable to appoint a younger man to his place, in the person of Field Marshal Count Waldersee.

But he turned a deaf ear to them, and absolutely declined to tender his resignation, partly because, like so many old men, he believed himself to be fully capable, physically as well as mentally, to fulfill his duties, and likewise because, having sustained financial reverses through unfortunate investment, he did not relish the idea of surrendering full pay for a relatively meager pension.

Finally, however, matters came to such a pass that the kaiser had to persistently and directly demand his resignation, with the result that he retired into private life as soured and embittered a man as Prince Bismarck, who would likewise have remained in office forever had not the kaiser been forced to insist upon his resignation after he had refused all hints and suggestions that it was wanted.

In his case, too, old age and infirmities, which made him so irritable and intolerant of contradiction as to render official intercourse with him difficult in the extreme, were one of the main causes of his practical dismissal from the chancellorship of the empire.

Yet another instance in point was that of the old duke of Cambridge, who, when he received a suggestion from his cousin, Queen Victoria, to the effect that the duties of generalissimo of the entire British army were too exacting for a man of his years, and that he would do well to resign, responded by pointing out to her majesty, that inasmuch as the duties of governing the vast British empire must be infinitely more arduous than the mere command of the army, he could not for very shame's sake give up work until she set him an example by abdicating.

That proved an unanswerable argument, and the queen declined to take any further steps in the matter. Indeed, if he eventually was got rid of, it was through a species of trick on the part of the Rosebery cabinet, and in particular of the then secretary of state for war, Sir Henry Campbell Bannerman, a trick which the old duke has never forgotten nor forgiven to this day.—Washington Post.

History Some Time Hence.

Teacher of History—Willie, what was the main thing which hastened the Spanish-American war?
Willie—The destruction of the Maine, mainly.
"What happened then?"
"A battle on the main."
"The Spanish main?"
"No."
"The American Maine?"
"No; just outside Maine-la."
"Did the Americans fight well?"
"With m-i-t and main."
"What remained?"
"Not much of Spain."
"What caused the war?"
"Spanish do-main."
"On the main-land?"
"No; on the island of Cuba."
"Very good, Willie; always remember the M-i-t and m-i-n."

The Scenic Route.

The traveler, tourist or business man is wise when he selects the Rio Grande Western Railway "Great Salt Lake Route" for his route to the East. It is the only trans-continental line passing directly through Salt Lake City, and in addition to the glimpse it affords of the Temple City, the Great Salt Lake and the picturesque Salt Lake and Utah Valleys, it offers the choice of three distinct routes through the mountains and the most magnificent scenery in the world. Double daily train service and through Pullman and Tourist sleeping cars to Denver, Omaha and Chicago. Monday Tuesday and Wednesday, of each week, Pullman Tourist cars are run to Boston via Chicago, without change.
Trains leave Salt Lake at 8.45 a. m. and 7.40 p. m. daily.
